

Psychology Associates

DUNEDIN

Are proud to present:

1st Floor, NMA Building, 49 Water St, PO Box 149, Dunedin 9054

phone (03) 477 7120

fax (03) 477 7130

email office@psychologyassociates.co.nz

web www.psychologyassociates.co.nz

From Abuse to Safety

A one-day workshop supporting victims of domestic abuse

Ricky Hunter

Experienced speakers:

Ricky Hunter has delivered over 150 workshops on supporting victims of domestic violence and sexual assault.

Jan Sky is the developer of the ESI[®] tool used to motivate behaviour change. Both speakers are authors, therapists, and extensively experienced in the area of domestic violence.

Jan Sky

This evidence based workshop will provide you with the tools to help survivors of interpersonal abuse :

- ◆ Dynamics of Intimate Partner Abuse (IPA)
- ◆ Overview of Intimate Partner Sexual Violence
- ◆ Red flags for identifying potential abusers
- ◆ PTSD in abuse sufferers
- ◆ IPA in GLBTQI relationships
- ◆ Resistance, a powerful aid in surviving
- ◆ Critical tipping points to getting out
- ◆ Executive State Identification[®] (ESI) -tools to empower victims to leave
- ◆ Leaving as a process—loss and grief
- ◆ Supporting your clients—(DO's and DON'T's)

Also covered: stalking, and abuse of pets

Monday, 13th October 2014, 9.30am—5pm

at Psychology Associates Development Centre
First floor, NMA Building, 49 Water Street, Dunedin

Register at our website: www.psychologyassociates.co.nz

$220.00 Early-bird fee if registration received by the 13th of September

$295.00 Standard registration

Registration includes tea breaks, lunch, and handouts.